The Jack Lunt Memorial Juried Art Exhibition began in 1987 as a collaboration between southcentral Kentucky philanthropist, Jerry E. Baker and the Capitol Arts Alliance, to honor his late partner, Jack Lunt. For over twenty years, the show was exhibited in the Capitol Arts Center Houchens Gallery and featured a variety of artists from across the Southcentral Kentucky region. The Downing Museum is proud to serve as the parent institution for this wonderful exhibition of regional artists and welcomes submissions of two- and three-dimensional works of art for jury.
